

The Rev Kathleen McAdams

The Rev. Kathy McAdams moved to Massachusetts in 2006 to serve as Executive Director of Ecclesia Ministries common cathedral, an outdoor church and street ministry in Boston. She has since served several congregations in the Diocese of Massachusetts. Previously, she served a congregation in Palo Alto, California.

An Episcopal Priest since 2001, she brings a breadth of experience in leading congregations, organizations and programs, as well as working with volunteers, clergy and other community leaders. Kathy lives in Quincy with her spouse, Ellen, and their 3 dogs and 4 cats. She enjoys horseback riding, cycling, kayaking, organic vegetable gardening, and vegan cooking.

Children's Story Time

During coffee hour every Sunday

Church Office Hours:

Tuesdays 7:30am-9:00am

Thursdays 4:30pm-8:00pm

The Rev. Dr. Leslie A. Muray

B.A., Whittier College
Rel.M, School of Theology at Claremont
Ph.D., The Claremont Graduate School

Les Muray is Professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies. He has been teaching at the college and university level since 1979, coming to Curry College in January, 2001. Dr. Muray is the author of two books, the second of which, Liberal Protestantism and Science, was published in 2008, and one hundred articles in five languages. He loves to travel and present papers both in the United States and different parts of the world. Les is a staunch Red Sox, Celtic, and Patriot fan well known for displaying these loyalties with the baseball caps he wears. He has been interviewed by a Hungarian radio station about his loyalty to the Celtics.

He is also a lover of books, the blues, rock 'n roll, Westerns, Hungarian and Asian foods, and cats, especially Sasha, his three legged companion animal.

Dr. Muray was ordained an Episcopal priest in 1975. He has served eight small churches as well as prison and university chaplaincies. He serves a Priest Associate (non-stipendiary) at Trinity Episcopal Church, Canton, MA.