

Our New Priest Introducing Fr Paul

We welcome Fr Paul Bresnahan to Trinity Church. Fr Paul began his ministry with us on Sunday January 22, 2017. His inaugural sermon; “Gone Fishing” can be read by clicking here.

Fr Paul is a native of Somerville MA and attended college at York University in Toronto where he majored in Psychology and minored in Sociology. He attended The Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts and graduated with a major in Biblical Studies in 1972. Bishop John Melville Burgess ordained him Deacon and Priest in that same year.

Fr Paul has served congregations in Massachusetts, Ohio, West Virginia and in Pennsylvania. He retired in 2006 and has been covering congregations on a part time basis since that time on an interim basis.

Office Hours

Fr Paul plans to provide office hours at Trinity Church on Wednesdays and Saturday in the morning. Please feel free to call for an appointment or stop by for a visit. You can call the office at 781-828-1810 or you can call Fr Paul directly at 978-317-3400.

Sunday Services.

Our Sunday schedule will remain the same:

The 8 am service will be Rite I following the more traditional usage of Elizabethan language.

The 10 am Eucharist will be Rite II following our current usage using contemporary English and with music and Hymns.

The Tuesday service has been discontinued.
